Junior High School Students and younger – Free

Cash only.*

In this special exhibition, appreciate famous ukiyo-e works, such as Hokusai's The Great Wave off Kanagawa, in a new way through large tapestries woven with glow-in-the-dark thread and Nishijin-ori weaving techniques.

You can also learn about how Japanese art inspired and propelled the movement of Japonism throughout the Western art world.

Furthermore, you can also observe the fine technology of an 1800-hook Jacquard loom up close.

Come and appreciate the great traditional craft of Nishijin-ori through the woven interpretations of Hokusai's Thirty-six Views of Mount Fuji and Hiroshige's Fifty-three Stations of the Tokaido.

※As of 6/24. For more up-to-date event information, please check the following local event bulletins below (Japanese).
