

Local Events – May 2023

Iris Rice Planting Festival

Date: 5/5

Time: From 11:00AM

Location: Tenma Shrine (Ichinono, Kumihama-cho)

This festival, celebrated since the Edo period, prays for health and abundant harvests and is known to be celebrated in only three places in Japan. Although the event itself does not involve rice planting, the local children sing folk songs and toss iris leaves high up into the sky. It is also registered as an Intangible Cultural Heritage in Kyoto Prefecture.

Hanago Okada – 1st Flush

Duration: Until 5/7

Location: Hanago Okada Flower Gardens (Okada, Kitsu, Amino-cho)

Admission: Adults - 700 yen

Children (Elementary School Age) - 350 yen

Infants/Toddlers – Free

Come see some seasonal blooms at Hanago Okada! While viewing the rows of colorful blossoms, you can also enjoy their housemade strawberry sweets, like strawberry daifuku. It's a wonderful way to spend a bright spring day!

The 6th Wisteria Festival

Date: 5/7

Time: 9:45AM ~ 3:00PM

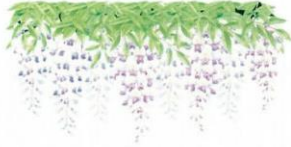

Location: Fuji no Sato – Wisteria Park
(Shimooka, Amino-cho)

Admission: Free

Like the famous wisteria trellises at Ashikaga Flower Park, Kyotango has its own grand display of these magical purple blooms in Amino. Come by for some family fun and entertainment under the eaves of wisteria gently swaying in the breeze.

Please use the parking lot at Amity Tango for this event.
